Somewhere in Belgium
March 19, 1945

Dear Mother & Dolly

Still in Belgium & not working to hard. Mess has been swell & hope it keeps up. There are quite a few soldiers here in this town so the boys on post, twenty, but I have a fairly good job so it is not to bad. Don't think I'll ever get use to being an M.P. & know I'll never like it.

Mother said that she thought that V-mail comes faster than Airmail but it really doesn't Airmail takes from 11 days to two weeks while V-mail arrives in about three weeks. How is Dad's garden coming along? Suppose John & Marion & all are all pitching in with it. Can't think of anything I need at the moment.

Love to all
Dick
